

Add Currency Hedged Indexes to “Premium Data Package”

Nikkei Inc. has added the historical data of newly launched “JPX-Nikkei 400 Currency Hedged Index” on a web-based information service, “Premium Data Package for JPX-Nikkei 400”, which is available from today. “Nikkei 225 Currency Hedged Index” launched last December has been already accessible on “Premium Data Package” for Nikkei 225 since then, which means that each Currency Hedged Index has become available on the Premium Data Package (PDP) now.

The subscribers of the each PDP are able to download the index related data including the total return index level, and constituent (stock, shares, Free-Float Weight and dividend) from the registered website and receive emails on the index related news such as changes in the constituents just after Nikkei’s announcements.

The indexes provided on the each package are as follows. For the further information, the usage fees and detailed information on the contents, please visit the “Premium Data Package” brochure page or contact Index Business Office, Nikkei Inc.
