

15-year Nikkei 225 data are available to download

The Nikkei Stock Average (Nikkei 225) is standing on the verge of the 20000 yen mark for the first time since April 2000.

Its monthly data for 15 years are now available to access in a form of csv file, where 4 types of monthly prices, opening, high, low, closing (based on daily closing) are downloadable from a web page for the time being, although the Nikkei 225 data have been provided through “Historical Data” in “Archives” tab as well.

The 15-year data are accessible by clicking a banner on the top page of this website “Nikkei Indexes” or through “Download Centers” in “Indexes” tab.

“Download Centers” in “Indexes” tab

<http://indexes.nikkei.co.jp/en/nkave/index>
