Nikkei Inc.

Regarding the value of the Nikkei Stock Average on Oct. 1

Due to a system failure of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, trading of all the listed stocks were halted all day. Under such a circumstance, Nikkei decides the four types of prices (open, high, low, and closing values) of the Nikkei Stock Average as 23,185.12, the same value as the previous day.

From 9 am JST, the index value was being updated as 23,184.93 (0.19 lower than the previous day's closes). This is calculated by applying the new divisor as a result of the constituent change to the closing prices of September 30. This is treated as a reference price and not an official index value.

Today's values of the Nikkei Stock Average are as follows.

Opening	23185.12
High	23185.12
Low	23185.12
Closing	23185.12
