

Cease the calculations of three indexes

Nikkei Inc. will cease the three index calculations of Nikkei China Related Stock 50, Nikkei JAPAN 1000 and Nikkei All Stock Index with the final calculations as of June 25, 2021.

Against backgrounds of changes in market environment and demands of market participants, Nikkei has found that those indexes have finished their roles.

The past index values and other information will continue to be provided for the time being, since the web pages of these indices will remain on the "Nikkei Indexes" website even after the cessation of these index calculations.
