

Changes in the Nikkei Consecutive Dividend Growth Stock Index constituents

June 12, 2026 –Nikkei Inc. will change the Nikkei Consecutive Dividend Growth Stock Index constituents as a result of the Periodic Review of 2026. The changes shown below will become effective from June 30. As two constituents were deleted after the Periodic Review of 2025, the current number of the constituents is 68. The number will be back to 70 after this reshuffle.

Date	Addition	Deletion
Jun. 30	1928 SEKISUI HOUSE, LTD. 3231 NOMURA REAL ESTATE HOLDINGS, INC. 8252 MARUI GROUP CO., LTD.	4503 ASTELLAS PHARMA INC.

The Periodic Review was carried out by using the ranking of stocks listed in Japan (excluding TOKYO PRO Market) by the number of years of consecutive dividend growth as of May 29 (Base Date) and the top 70 stocks were selected in principle. In cases where the number of years of consecutive dividend growth is the same, the stock with the higher actual dividend yield as of the base date is ranked higher.

(Note) The number of years of consecutive dividend growth are counted based on the fiscal year, counting an irregular accounting period with more or less than 12 months also a year. Sorted by actual dividend yield in descending order in cases where multiple components have the same number of consecutive dividend growth. Dividends only after the listing is covered and they are adjusted considering splits and consolidations of stocks. Stocks with low liquidity and small market capitalization are not eligible for the index. Stocks with * after the name are newly added.
